

Current Events IN REVIEW

by Edward W. Pickard

President Denounces War

President Roosevelt was addressed the summer camp at Chautauque, N. Y., on foreign relations. He expressed his deep concern

about tendencies in other parts of the world and spoke

bitterly about the

violation of both the

letter and the spirit of

international

agreements. "Without regard to the simple principles of

honor."

"Our closest

neighbors," the President said, "are the nations

of the world. It is our responsibility to know

that we are strong; they

know that we are strong;

and we will defend ourselves and our neighborhood."

Mr. Roosevelt said he had seen men bleed

running from the

wounded," he said, "I have seen men coughing

up their lungs. I have seen the dead in the streets. I have seen

cities destroyed. I have seen 200,000

impoverished, exhausted men come

out of line—the survivors of a regiment

of 100,000 who went

forward forty-eight hours before I have seen children

starving. I have seen the agonies of

mothers and

children. I have seen the agonies of

mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

President Denounces War

President Roosevelt was

addressed the summer camp at

Chautauque, N. Y., on foreign

relations. He expressed

his deep concern

about tendencies in

other parts of the

world and spoke

bitterly about the

violation of both the

letter and the spirit of

international

agreements. "With-

out regard to the

simple principles of

honor."

"Our closest

neighbors," the President

said, "are the nations

of the world. It is our

responsibility to know

that we are strong; they

know that we are strong;

and we will defend our-

selves and our neighborhood."

Mr. Roosevelt said he had seen men bleed

running from the

wounded," he said, "I

have seen men coughing

up their lungs. I have

seen the dead in the

streets. I have seen

cities destroyed. I

have seen 200,000

impoverished, ex-

hausted men come

out of line—the survivors of a regiment

of 100,000 who went

forward forty-eight

hours before I

have seen children

starving. I have

seen the agonies of

mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

seen the agonies

of mothers and

children. I have

Commodity Exchange Act

Attacked in Court

AN EQUITY suit attacking the constitutionality of the commodity exchange act, chiefly on the ground that it seeks to regulate interstate rather than intercommerce in violation of the Constitution, was filed in the federal district court in Chicago.

The suit was instituted by William S. Moore, a member of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, and James the exchange, its board of directors, and the following as defendants: Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture; Leslie A. Fitz, supervisor of the commodity exchange administration in Chicago; Daniel C. Roper, secretary of commerce; Homer S. Cummings, United States attorney general; Michael

L. Igoe, United States district attorney of the northern Illinois district; and Ernest J. Kraegen, Chicago postmaster.

In his petition Mr. Moore asked that the commodity exchange act be declared unconstitutional, void, and unenforceable.

Reds Waging War to Win

America, Says Hobson

AMONG THE PLANNERS of the Public Welfare association of New York, the National Conference of Clergymen and Laymen at Ashe-land, N. C., last week, was the national Communist propaganda agency, is waging "scientific warfare" for the conquest of the United States.

He said the board of strategy of his association, after exhaustive study, has concluded that a competent Communist general staff has been at work and that the Communist general staff succeeded to the extent of casting

widespread doubt on the Constitution and bringing discredit on the Supreme court.

John A. Lyon, New York attorney and a leading Methodist lawyer, supported Admiral Hobson by stating that the Communist general staff has been at work and that the Communist general staff

succeeded to the extent of casting

widespread doubt on the Constitution and bringing discredit on

the Supreme court.

John A. Lyon, New York attor-

ney and a leading Methodist law-

yer, supported Admiral Hobson by

stating that the Communist general staff has been at work and

that the Communist general staff

succeeded to the extent of casting

widespread doubt on the Constitution and bringing discredit on

the Supreme court.

John A. Lyon, New York attor-

ney and a leading Methodist law-

yer, supported Admiral Hobson by

stating that the Communist general staff has been at work and

that the Communist general staff

succeeded to the extent of casting

widespread doubt on the Constitution and bringing discredit on

the Supreme court.

John A. Lyon, New York attor-

ney and a leading Methodist law-

yer, supported Admiral Hobson by

stating that the Communist general staff has been at work and

that the Communist general staff

succeeded to the extent of casting

widespread doubt on the Constitution and bringing discredit on

the Supreme court.

John A. Lyon, New York attor-

UNITED STATES WILL NOT

Interfere in Spain

Notably France, to persuade the United States to take a neutral position in the Spanish civil war is the intention of the German government, according to statements made by German officials. The press of Berlin will report that the German government is determined to remain neutral in the Spanish civil war and will not take any action which might be construed as interference in the internal affairs of Spain. The German government is determined to remain neutral in the Spanish civil war and will not take any action which might be construed

as interference in the internal

affairs of Spain. The German

government is determined to

remain neutral in the Spanish

civil war and will not take any

action which might be construed

as interference in the internal

affairs of Spain. The German

government is determined to

remain neutral in the Spanish

civil war and will not take any

action which might be construed

as interference in the internal